CEDAW AND DEDAW

CEDAW (1979) – does not explicitly mention violence against women and girls, but recommendations 12 and 19 clarify that this is included.

DEDAW (1993/4) became the first international instrument explicitly addressing violence against women 1993 important year – because?

UN Special Rapporteurs/Representatives

1993/4 Spec Rap on violence against women, its causes and consequences

2004 Spec Rap on trafficking in persons, especially women and children

2010: Special Representative on sexual violence in conflict

- First legally binding instrument to cover all forms of violence against women (physical, sexual, psychological, economic, sexual harassment and stalking)
- Detailed measures for the 5 P's (Policy, Prevention, Protection, Provision and Prosecution)
- Establish fundamental principles for service provision to survivors

Chapter 7

4. The exporting State Party, in making this assessment, shall take into account the risk of the conventional arms covered under Article 2 (1) or of the items covered under Article 3 or Article 4 being used to commit or facilitate serious acts of gender-based violence or serious acts of violence against women and children.

“This is not just about women,
we men need
to recognize the part we play, too.

Real men
treat women
with dignity
and give them
the respect
they deserve.”
